

Extra Homestuck Charts

By S. Ann Ran

4 in x 4 in gauge: 20 sts by 24 rows on #9s

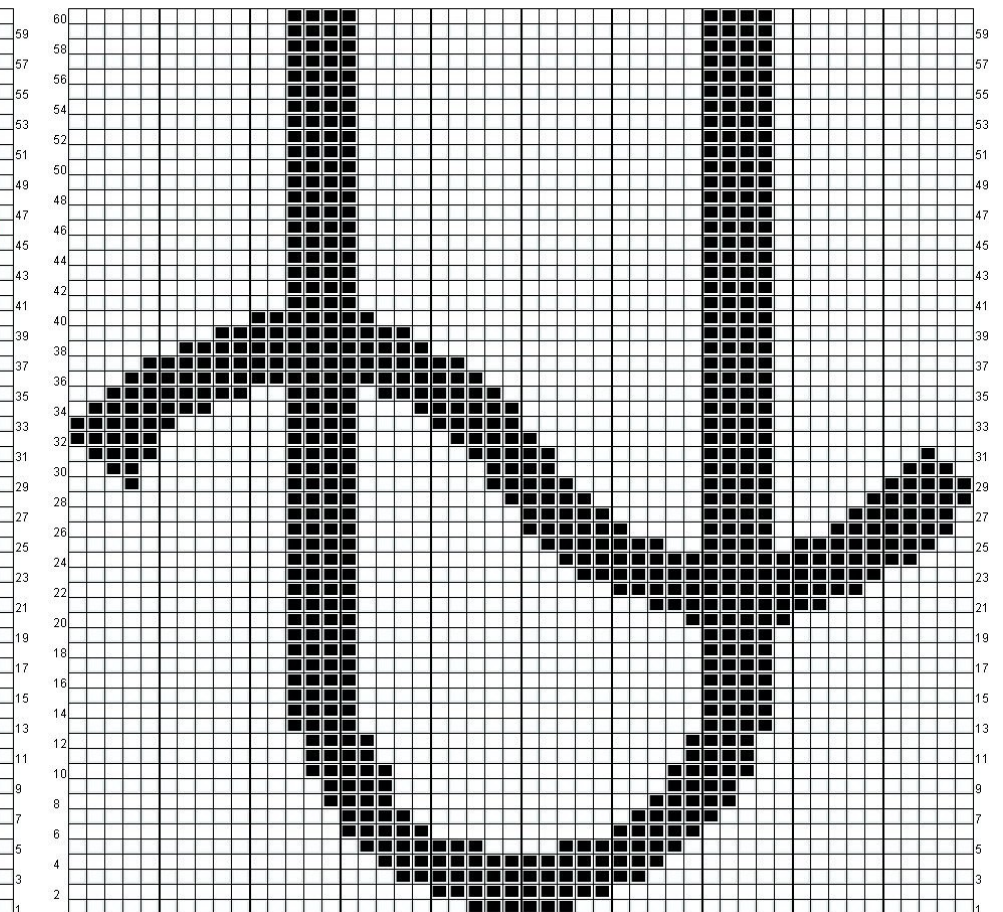

Sburb Beta & Alpha Logos, Sgrub Beta Logo, Dream, Ophiuchus & Caduceus

Various imagery as created by Andrew Hussie for Homestuck; charted to the same scale as the previous charts. All charts are 50 sts by 60 rows and the image is centered on that chart; the idea was that all the charts would be needed, and to have them in relation to each other. The majority of the images used to create the charts came from the Homestuck Wiki; the rest came from Homestuck Resources (<http://homestuckresources.tumblr.com/>).

With the Caduceus, the bolded black lines are possible embroidery lines if you want to make the two snakes and the orb at the top more distinct. If you are going for a more abstract look, they can be skipped easily.
