

Homestuck Quadrant Charts

By S. Ann Ran

4 in x 4 in gauge: 20 sts by 24 rows on #9s

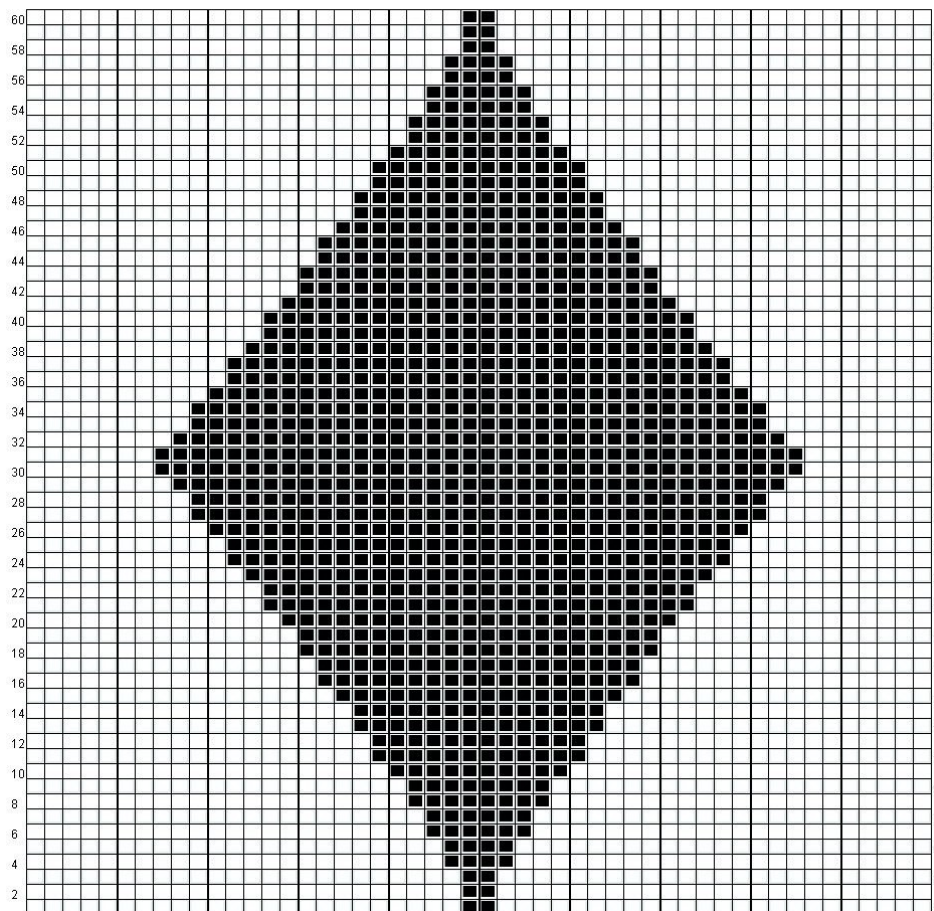

Homestuck Quadrants, Heart, Diamond, Spade, Clubs

The first chart is the troll relationship quadrants as created by Andrew Hussie for Homestuck; the rest are each of the card suits large style, all are charted to the same scale as the previous charts. All charts are 50 sts by 60 rows and the image is centered on that chart; the idea was that all the charts would be needed, and to have them in relation to each other. Unlike the previous charts, these were generated by using the card suit symbols from the font Arial.
